

Curriculum Vita

Douglas J. Scalapino

Name: Douglas J. Scalapino

Rank: Professor

Education: Ph.D., 1961, Stanford University, Physics

Academic Appointments:

1964-66 Assistant Professor, University of Pennsylvania

1966-68 Associate Professor, University of Pennsylvania

1968-69 Professor, University of Pennsylvania

1968-69 Visiting Professor, University of California, Santa Barbara

1969-2005 Professor, University of California, Santa Barbara

2005-present Research Professor, University of California, Santa Barbara

Honors and Awards:

1964-66 Alfred P. Sloan Foundation Fellow

1966 Fellow of the American Physical Society

1976-77 Guggenheim Fellow

1983 Twenty-Eighth Annual Faculty Research Lecturer, UCSB

1991 Member of the National Academy of Sciences

1992 Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences

1998 Julius Lilienfeld Prize

2006 John Bardeen Prize

Professional Activities (Selected Information):

Consultant to: Superconductor Technologies Inc., Science Advisory Board 1987—;

DuPont 1963—2002; IBM 1989—92; Los Alamos National Laboratory Condensed Matter

Fellows Program 1991—2000

Other Professional Service:

Fritz London Award Committee 1971--77;

Trustee, Aspen Center for Physics 1976--79;

Founder ITP (with J. Hartle, R. Sawyer and R. Sugar), 1979

Buckley Prize Committee 1980--81;

Associate Editor, Nuclear Physics B 1980--83;

Vice-Chairman Elect, Division of Condensed Matter, American Physical Society 1981--83;

Chair, Division of Condensed Matter, American Physical Society 1983--84;

Associate Editor, Physical Review B 1987--92;

NSF Materials Research Advisory Committee 1989--92;

Educational Council, Annals of Physics 1991--95;

Chair, Condensed Matter Physics Selection Panel, National Academy of Science, 1992, '93, 94;

Chair, Bardeen Prize Committee, 2000

Chair, UCSD Physics Department Review, 2002

ETH Physics Department Review; 2006